FARM TRACTOR OVERTURNS; KILLS BOY, 13

Robert L. Davis, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Davis, York Springs R. 1, was fatally injured Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock when a tractor he was driving rolled over a half mile from his home and crushed him.

Dr. C. G. Crist, the county coroner, said the death of the child was caused by a crushed chest and a fractured skull.

State police said the youth apparently lost control of the tractor on a down grade near his home and was thrown from the vehicle. The tractor then rolled over the top of the boy.

DRIVING TRACTOR HOME

The youth had gone with his father to the Vance Stitzel farm supply store at York Springs, about three miles from their home, to pick up the tractor which had been under repair. The youth was enroute home with the tractor when the accident occurred.

The York Springs firemen's ambulance was called to the scene but upon their arrival the ambulance attendants radioed the Quick Call Center here that the child was dead and Dr. C. G. Crist was summoned to the scene.

SERVICES FRIDAY

An Eighth Grade student of the Bermudian Springs High School, the youth was a member of the Harmon-Bethel Church of God, Dillsburg R. D., and of the Sunday School there.

He is survived by his parents; a sister, Shirley Ann, and three brothers, Harold Jr., Douglas C. and Gregory L. Davis, all at home, and grandmother, Mrs. Florence B. Kline, York Springs R. 1.

Funeral services Friday morning at 10 o'clock from the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, with the Rev. Amos D. Meyers and Clair H. Mowery officiating. There will be no viewing.

FHA LOANS IN TWO COUNTIES UP FOR YEAR

The Farmers' Home Administration of the U.S. Department of Agriculture loaned farm families and other rural people in Adams and York Counties a record total of $264,270 in fiscal 1962 which ended on June 30. Daniel A. Paddock, county supervisor, announced today.

The volume of loans in this area was $136,830 larger than 1961 and $49,650 larger than loans in 1960. These loans were made during fiscal 1962 for farm operating expenses, purchase, development or enlargement of family farms, and for the construction and improvement of houses and service buildings on farm and in rural communities.

Collections of principal totaled $260,084 in 1962 compared with $208,522 in 1961 and $205,500 in 1960.

LOANS OUTSTANDING

Loans outstanding on June 30 in the two-county area amounted to $756,211 compared with $1,517,060 a year earlier.

CREDIT NEEDS RISE

Three recent improvements more adequately equipped the Farmers' Home Administration to meet farm credit needs in 1962, according to Mr. Paddock: Positive, vigorous policy toward the promotion and preservation of the family farm; broad expansion of the agency's programs by the Agricultural and Housing Acts of 1961, and an increase in the supply of appropriate and insured funds.

"Farmers are requiring larger amounts of credit each year," Mr. Paddock said. "The upward trend in farmers' credit needs stems from the continuing rise in farm costs and the pressing need to make adjustments and improve."

10 Purebred Cattle Killed By Lightning

Ten purebred cattle that were standing under and around a persimmon tree in a Mt. Joy Twp. pasture Tuesday afternoon when a bolt of lightning struck the tree were killed and the loss was estimated today by their owner, Allen Epley, Littlestown R. 1, at between $1,500 and $2,000.

There was no storm and only a few drops of rain from the clouds from which the bolt struck, Mr. Epley said. He and two workmen were 200 yards away at a barn engaged in filling a silo. There was one close flash of lightning and then the 10 cattle were seen lying around the small tree. Four other cattle were unhurt.

Nine purebred Holstein heifers and a valuable Angus bull were killed. The bolt struck about 2:30 o'clock. The Epley farm is about a mile east of the Hoffman Home in Mt. Joy Twp.

15 Killed In Earthquakes That Hit Southern Italy; 100 Injured; Panic Spreads

By DOMENICO GORDANO
NAPLES, Italy (AP) — New earth tremors spread panic in southern Italy early today after a severe earthquake Tuesday night that took about 15 lives and injured at least 100.

No foreigners were reported among the dead and injured. The earth shocks left a trail of damage from this port city to the Adriatic coast. Some of the deaths were attributed to heart attacks from fright. Many of the injured were hurt in panicky flights from swaying homes and buildings.

Jacqueline Kennedy's cliffside vacation villa at Ravello is only 45 miles southwest of the apparent epicenter of the worst quake. Only slight tremors were felt there and Mrs. Kennedy's 4-year-old daughter Caroline and the rest of the household remained calm, servants said.

LIGHTNING IS CAUSE OF BARN FIRE TUESDAY

Fire, believed caused by lightning, destroyed a barn at the farm of C. Edgar King, New Oxford R. 2, Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Justice of the Peace King and Hampton Fire Chief Brinton Miller estimated the loss, which was partially covered by insurance, at $15,000. Ten tons of straw, 12 tons of hay 104 bushel of oats, a corn planter and other machinery burned with the barn which was located a half mile north of Hampton along the Hanover-Carlisle highway. There were no cattle in the barn at the time the bolt hit during a relatively mild thunderstorm.

Members of the Hampton, Abbotstown and East Berlin fire companies responded and prevented the flames from spreading to a nearby weatherboard workshop and buggy shed. A wagon and implement shed adjoining the barn was slightly damaged.

Firemen said the lightning bolt apparently followed electric wires from the barn to a nearby workshop, jumped to a cross-cut saw which was standing upright and was grounded.

Firemen used water from the booster tanks of the fire trucks refilling from the pond of Eugene Lemmon, a quarter of a mile from the blazing bank barn.

HOPE TO FILL REC DIRECTOR POSITION SOON

The Gettysburg Recreation Board hopes to announce the name of the new recreation director by the end of next week, according to reports at Monday night's session of the board at its office in the high school here.

Lee Raffensperger, who leaves the post of recreation director here September 1 to accept a similar position at Lititz, and members of the board who had met two applicants for the post reported at Monday's meeting.

Plans were made for the whole board to meet one of the two applicants at a date suitable to the candidate for the post next week. The secretary, Mrs. Janet Wick-erham, was directed to set up the meeting.

TALK WITH FIREMEN

Raymond Menges and C. William Zhea of the Gettysburg Fire Department's 100th battle anniversary committee met with the recreation board to discuss plans for next year's firemen's carnival. They discussed the possibility of using the western side of the Recreation Field for parking in connection with the firemen's carnival and the possibility of moving the nightly fireworks to another section of the field. Menges and Zhea are to meet with the recreation board again later as plans are further developed to review the proposals.

Approval was given for the expenditure of "up to $200" in connection with renovation of the Big Little League field at Recreation Park. The league itself is furnishing some of the money for the improvements including construction of bleachers similar to those at the Little League field.

PROFITS FROM STAND

Together with retiring Director Raffensperger, the board reviewed the summer playground season and listed playground supervisors who may be expected to be available next summer. The review was sought so the board would be able to advise the new recreation director.

Raffensperger's report showed $175 in the checking account for the refreshment stand operated by the board at Rec Park. He said all bills have been paid with one exception and "it looks like we will probably have about $150 profit."

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — South Vietnamese troops today reported 134 Red guerrillas killed in the first success of the government's major offensive to break the back of the Communist force in the Mekong River delta.

Military sources said the government's 1st Airborne attalion encountered a large concentration of Viet Cong guerrillas Tuesday night a few miles south of the operation's command post at Bac Lieu, in southern Ba Xuyen Province.

The informants said 54 Reds were killed in the ground fight and another 80 by air strikes. Government casualties totaled six killed and 14 wounded.

Government forces also captured a small store of Communist arms and fuel in the clash, the first time South Vietnamese troops have met a sizable Red force since they opened "Operation Big Pacification" last week.

Report 134 Reds Killed In Viet Nam Offensive

Viet Cong concentrations controlling most of Viet Nam's southern tip ended last weekend in disappointment for its American planners.

Gen. Paul D. Harkins, commander of U.S. forces in Viet Nam and Thailand, and his high command had worked on the planning for three months and were highly optimistic when it got under way. But for four days, 4,000 government troops backed by fighter planes, U.S. helicopters and navy units pushed through Ca Mau peninsula at the tip of Viet Nam without making contact with any Viet Cong concentrations.

The estimated 2,000 guerrillas in the region melted into the thick mangrove swamps. American sources reported the drive netted only 60 Viet Cong dead.

The operation's second phase opened Tuesday as the government force turned northward to the river delta in Ba Xuyen Province, believed infiltrated by some 1,600 Red guerrillas in recent weeks.

Rowe was killed instantly. Bowders was in a satisfactory condition in the Warner Hospital this morning and his wife, Mrs. M. Bowders, 19, an expectant mother, died at the hospital this morning at 12:40 o'clock.

THROWN FROM CAR

Adams County coroner Dr. C. G. Crist said Rowe was thrown from his car after the accident and was found lying behind the vehicle off the berm of the road. He said Rowe's death was caused "instantly" by a compound fracture of the skull, compound fractures of both bones of the left leg and a large puncture wound in the back.

Mrs. Bowders was removed to the Warner Hospital in the Gettysburg Fire Co. ambulance. She never recovered consciousness. Dr. Crist said her death was caused by a fractured skull, broken jaw and left leg and lacerations and contusions of the entire body. Her husband suffered a deep laceration of the left elbow and a sprained left ankle.

State police said both cars were demolished, estimating the loss to the 1957 Ford owned by Bowders at $700 and the loss to Rowe's 1957 Lincoln at $1,000.

Boy Falls 70 Feet Into 2 Ft. Of Water; Laughs

HARRISBURG (AP) — It's not often that a 13-year-old boy falls 70 feet from a bridge into two feet of water and can come up laughing, but that's what happened to Larry Willard.

Larry tumbled into the Susquehanna River Tuesday. He was fishing with a friend on the Harvey Taylor Bridge in Harrisburg. What was the first thing he did after his fall?

"I looked up from the water and saw my buddy, Tim, with a stupid looking hat on and all I could do was start laughing," the youngster recalled today.

Tim is Timothy McLinn, 16, a pal of Willard.

ESCAPES INJURY

Larry wasn't hurt in the fall. He wasn't even too excited. But the tumble got a lot of other people worked up. Fifteen to 20 people gathered on the bridge to see what had happened.

Even the police came and insisted on taking Larry to Harrisburg Hospital for a checkup. After much talk, the youngster consented to go but he was found unharmed. His mother, Mrs. Hope V. Willard met him at the hospital and gave him dry clothes.

As Larry tells it, he either slipped or tripped while leaning over the rail with his fishing pole. The next thing he knew, he was falling wet and looking up instead of down.

Larry groped around in the water for awhile to recover his fishing pole, then waded to shore to rejoin his friend on the bridge.

"I did some more fishing, but I figured I was a little wet, so I decided to go home," he declared. That's when the police arrived. Ironically, while young Larry was fishing "some more," several men in a small boat rowed to the scene and started poking around in the mud near where Larry had fallen.

"I yelled down to them that I was up or the bridge," Larry said. "They looked rather annoyed, but left."

"I guess I was pretty lucky, at that," he said later. Larry will be an eighth grader at St. Francis of Assisi grade school in Harrisburg this fall.

Hanover Man Is Acquitted In York

Maurice N. Rill, 25, Hanover R. 5, was acquitted Tuesday by a York County criminal court jury of a charge of involuntary manslaughter brought as the result of an accident August 12, 1961, at the Sticks intersection, York County, which claimed the life of Joseph W. Grammer, Baltimore.

The jury placed the costs on the county. Rill, represented by Attorney Jesse L. Crabbs, told the jury he did not see a stop sign which controls traffic on Route 516 where it intersects with Route 216 because the sun obscured his vision. Rill also contended trees and shrubbery made it difficult for him to ascertain he was approaching an intersection. It was the first time he had driven over the highway.

The intersection since has been made a four-way stop.

"WITHIN MY HEART"

With all my heart I love you
... my reason and my why
... when we're apart time
... with you the hours
... with all my dreams I
... each one a treasure
... I hope my tender
... tell you how
... much I care ... with all
... faith I guide you ... along
... the winding way ... ever
... ever yearning ... to hear
... warm things you say
... with all my strength I hold
... you ... so close that we are
... one ... each time that I
... embrace you ... I find a bright-

... import ... the things that I
... so seldom say ... except

Out Of The Past

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Armory Site Deeded To State:

A deed conveying a plot of ground and a right of way along the east side of West Confederate avenue from Major Calvin Gilbert, Springs Avenue, to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was placed on record at the office of Quintin D. Rebert, register and recorder at the court house. The consideration was $900. The deed covers a plot measuring 330 by 510 feet which is the site for the $55,700 armory to be built here for the national guard. A 13-foot right-of-way is provided from the property covered in the deed to Ridge Avenue.

Gambling Devices Confiscated:

State Motor police of the local substation turned over to County Treasurer William I. Shields this morning $6,422 which had been removed from confiscated slot machines and other gambling devices seized in police raids during the last few months in various parts of the county. The money was placed in the county poor board's fund. The slot machines and other gambling paraphernalia are being held at the county jail awaiting an order from the court for its destruction.

Fire At Hammers' Hall: While Luther E. Jacobs and his family attended morning worship services on Sunday flames were discovered in the rear of his "Community Pure Food Store" at Hammers' Hall along the hard-surfaced road leading from the Lincoln Highway to Knoxlyn. The interior of the storeroom on the west side of the double frame building was badly damaged, causing almost total loss of a $3,000 stock of general goods in the store. The rear of the living quarters on the east side also was damaged by flames, while the front rooms and the entire second floor suffered from smoke and water. Damage, which was estimated to be in excess of $3,000, is partly covered by insurance. The cause of the blaze has not been determined.

R. L. Wisler Weds: Raymond L. Wisler, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Wisler, 157 North Stratton St., and Miss Dolores Georgia Beale, daughter of Mrs. William J. Beale, New Oxford, were married in Warrington, Va., by the Rev. Glen J. Cooper, a Methodist Episcopal minister. Mr. Wisler is maintenance superintendent of the Pennsylvania Department of Highways of Adams County. He was graduated from Gettysburg High School and was a member of the class of 1931 at Gettysburg College. Mrs. Wisler attended New Oxford High School and was graduated from Prowell's Business School, York, in 1933. She is connected with her mother and brother in the restaurant business in New Oxford. Mr. and Mrs. Wisler will live at their respective homes for the present.

Uncover Snake Den: Earl Mickle, Fairfield, and Robert and Charles Mickle, Mt. Hope, uncovered a den of 23 copperhead snakes while cutting wood on the Mickle farm at Mt. Hope. The snakes were captured and killed. Two more were found subsequently by the boys.

The new union bus terminal on North Washington Street was placed in service today and the first bus to unload passengers there arrived at 11:20 o'clock, a westbound Greyhound bus from Philadelphia. With the transfer of the terminal point from center square to the new rooms, Nicholas Meligakes became sole agent here for the Greyhound, Blue Ridge and the Gettysburg-Harrisburg lines.

Payments In County: In Adams County in July 40 aged persons received $6,104; 44 blind persons were paid $1,312 and 29 families containing dependent children were granted $1,065.

Nett-Daugherty: Miss Catherine Daugherty, daughter of Mr.

Today's Talk

YOUR GENERATING POWER

We cannot will to be anything, or to do anything, but we can will to be and will to do far beyond most of our dreams. There is within us a great generating power. We ourselves do not know its limits, even at the height of serious and determined tests. But we grow in power and in the will to do and be as we draw upon this power within us.

The majority of great achievers brought about results far beyond their fondest hopes.

Little did Columbus realize the extent of his discovery. Little did Watt dream of the power that steam would one day be, or Franklin that of electricity, or Edison of the light which he gave to the world.

The commercial, artistic, scientific world is filled with the names of those who were once poor and unknown, but who by repeatedly testing their hidden powers, rose to great fame, usefulness and wealth.

Your generating power is known to you alone. No one can predict the extent of your rise in the world. But you can rise. You can accumulate and grow and enlarge your life through repeated effort; and through the increase of this valuable generating power given you at birth.

The boy in college thrills at the new knowledge that stirs his imagination and his unknown latent powers. He revels in dreams. He feels the movement of ideas, full of mystery. Life is good. Each day he generates power for a life of activity and usefulness.

Each one of us owns a precious dynamo, and across its base we may read these letters — You Can!

Just Folks

BORED

He talked so much of bonds and stocks
I quit the cabin where we sat
For Peter, at his tackle box,
And sat me down with him to chat.
The talk takes on a dreary pitch
When your companion's only rich.

And Peter being poor of purse
And having but his time to sell,
Knew woods and streams and could rehearse
Strange little tales he loved to tell.

So wise, so quaintly droll was he
I found him happy company.

He knew the birds, he knew the trees,
The season's changes and the pines,
And quietly he talked of these
The while he straightened out his lines.
And when he wished, I'm sure he knew
Just how to set me laughing, too.

We need so much that others know;
So much that others have to give
That it's too bad that we should grow
Within a selfish rut to live.
There is so much of splendor, which Surpasses merely being rich.

and Mrs. Harry Daugherty, Toneytown road, and Wilburn Nett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Nett, Baltimore street, were united in marriage by the bride's pastor, the Rev. Herbert H. Schmidt, at the Mt. Joy Lutheran church parsonage. James Nett, brother of the bridegroom, was the only attendant. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a wedding trip to New Albany, Indiana and Louisville, Kentucky. They will reside for the present at the home of the bride's parents.

PENTAGON HAS MOVIE HEADS
IN FILM STEW

By BOB THOMAS

AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Movies about the American fighting forces, a Hollywood staple since the first days of World War II, are in danger of extinction by Pentagon directives.

So says Sy Bartlett, an expert in the service picture. An Air Force reserve colonel himself, he is now filming a saga of the Strategic Air Command, "A Gathering of Eagles," with Rock Hudson and Rod Taylor.

The move almost didn't get made Bartlett remarked.

PENTAGON BRASS

"It took the recommendation of Gen. Curtis LeMay and President Kennedy himself to get it past the Pentagon brass," the producer said.

There was a time when the services were falling over each other to extend cooperation to film makers on films extolling the glories of the particular branches. What happened?

It was the second coming of D-Day that did it. Darryl Zanuck borrowed American troops and equipment to help stage "The Longest Day." Congressmen got wind of this and started a barrage against such use of American fighting men.

TAXPAYER BENEFIT

"It's ridiculous," complained Bartlett. "The only thing they want to know now is: How will the movie benefit the taxpayers? So we had to explain how it would show the taxpayers what they are getting for their money."

"It would also demonstrate the system of positive control to those who fear that a war can be started through error. And it would show in a very graphic way to the Russians why they would be foolish to start anything."

Even after such arguments, Bartlett received no concessions in filming of his picture. He was told he could proceed — but personnel and equipment could not be used for anything beside their regular duties.

"That kind of ruling would eliminate almost every kind of service picture," the producer declared. "Fortunately, we were able to go ahead because SAC is in daily maneuvers which we could photograph."

Bartlett is a champion of the service film not merely because he makes many of them. He thinks they do a good selling job for the United States at home and abroad.

THE TOUGH ONE

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — What's the toughest single feat in sports? Here's the answer Bobby Dodd, head football coach at Georgia Tech, gave during an after-dinner speech in Tampa:

"It's not batting in the ninth with the bases loaded. Nor is it shooting the foul shot with the score tied. It's not kicking the extra point that could win the game."

"It's trying to sink a short putt under pressure."

SAYS NEA OUT
TO KILL UNION
FOR TEACHERS

DETROIT (AP)—President Carl J. Megel told the American Federation of Teachers (AFL-CIO) convention Tuesday the National Education Association is trying to exterminate the teachers union.

Megel keynote speaker at the convention, said in a prepared address: "The NEA does not expect to compete with us. It intends to exterminate us."

The AFT president's speech to approximately 750 delegates to the 46th annual convention contained his promised reply to attacks from the NEA on his union's policies.

DEFENDS UNIONISM

He defended teacher unionism and pledged increased organization of the AFT, inviting aid from the AFL-CIO.

The NEA, which claims 900,000 members in the teaching profession, condemned the AFT's one-day strike last spring against the New York City public school system.

In contrast to the 70,000-member AFT the NEA policy calls for settlement of teacher grievances by negotiation.

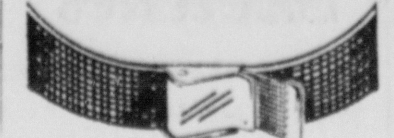

At its Denver convention earlier this year however, the NEA approved a program of sanctions against offending schools or school districts. This would have a black-listing effect.

HIGH REVIVAL COSTS

NEW YORK (AP) — An off-Broadway revival costs almost as much today as a Broadway production did 12 years ago.

The example is "A Stage Affair," a four-actor play by Paul Crabtree. The price tag on the current presentation is $15,000. When done in 1950 on Broadway (under a different title, "A Story for Sunday Evening") the cost was $16,000.

SEAT BELTS

There's hardly an owner who uses them who hasn't had an experience that leads him to say: "I'm glad I had seat belts!" Seat belts work... "If every one used them," the National Safety Council says "we could save at least 5,000 lives a year... reduce serious injuries by 1/3!" Do you have seat belts in your car? Do you use them all the time?

SAVE LIVES

ANTONELLI SLEEPS NOW

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP) — Johnny Antonelli, the former 20-game National League winner who quit baseball rather than join the New York Mets, says he enjoys retirement.

"Night after night when I was pitching," recalls Antonelli, "I'd wake up with arms and legs flying, ducking line drives coming back to the mound. I know lots of pitchers who experienced the same thing. Now I'm sleeping beautifully and regularly, 11 to 7."

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — "I never want to play the Masters again," said 60-year-old Gene Sarazen when tired legs and a heavy course forced him to retire during the third round.

Sarazen, 1935 Masters winner, shot 74-74 in the first two rounds. "I'm losing my distance," Sarazen smiled.

NEW YORK (AP) — A national touring company of Broadway's new comedy hit, "Take Her, She's Mine," has been set for an 11-month swing through 26 cities starting Sept. 6.

The expedition begins in Rochester, N. Y., home town of director George Abbott. The windup engagement will be in Los Angeles.

Plymouth Policeman
Killed In Crash

PLYMOUTH, Pa. (AP)—A policeman was killed and another seriously injured while answering a fire call Tuesday.

Listed as dead at Mercy Hospital was patrolman John Peters, 35. Critically injured was patrolman Joseph Van Loom, 35.

Firemen were called when lightning hit a small grocery store. It was quickly doused and there was little damage.

Police got a call at 1:20 a.m. and a cruiser was dispatched to the fire.

The cruiser, going to the fire at the height of the electrical storm, reportedly skidded and crashed into a utility pole.

Peters, a member of the force approximately 20 years, is survived by a widow and two sons.

WAYMART, Pa. (AP) — Two trustees at Fairview State Hospital for the Criminally Insane remained at large Tuesday after walking away from the institution's farm in this remote Wayne County community Monday.

Authorities said the men—Reginald Fooks, 45 and Yonel Oprish, 65, both Philadelphia—walked away separately. Fooks was committed in 1943 on two 20 to 40-year sentences for burglary and larceny. Oprish was committed in 1944 for distributing obscene literature.

Her lover, ex-convict John Edwin Myer, 33, is awaiting execution in Texas for the Dekrail murder.

The Stone girl and Myer said they killed the four for money. They got $17.

7-Run Yank Explosion In 10th Beats Angels; Roberts Gets 8th Win

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bill Rigney's disorderly stomach was doing the Mt. Vesuvius twist today to the accompaniment of 76 trombones.

That, at least, should be the state of Rigney's harassed internal system after the beating his Los Angeles Angels took from the American League leading New York Yankees Tuesday night.

The Angels' manager, just out of the hospital for treatment of a stomach disorder, watched his scrappy club tie the powerful Yankees in the ninth, then had to witness a seven-run explosion in the 10th inning that gave the front-runners an 11-4 victory.

Rigney suffered a soft jolt when Bill Skowron drove in the tie-breaker. Two severe quakes followed on run-producing hits by Tony Kubek and Cleve Boyer. Roger Maris' grand-slam homer got the twist music going.

The victory in the opener of the key three-game series boosted the Yankees led to five games over the Angels and Minnesota Twins, who moved into a tie for the runner-up spot by defeating Washington 5-2 on the combined four-hit pitching of Jack Kralick and Ray Moore.

Elsewhere in the AL, Detroit belted Cleveland 10-1 while Jim Bunning hurled a four-hitter, Rob in Roberts pitched Baltimore to a 9-1 triumph over the Chicago White Sox and Boston walloped Kansas City 11-6.

ANGELS HAD LEAD

A pair of bases-empty homers by Lee Thomas were the big blows as the Angels pulled out to a 3-1 lead over the Yankees after five innings. A two-run shot by Elston Howard in the sixth tied it. The Yanks moved out front in the seventh, but the Angels battled back to throw it into extra innings on a walk and singles by Billy Moran and Leon Wagner in the ninth inning. The deluge followed, making Bud Daley (6-3) the winner and former Yankee Ryne Duren (2-9) the loser.

Kralick (9-8) had the Senators blanked on two hits until the eighth inning when a two-run single by Don Lock brought on Moore. Moore struck out Jim King to end the uprising. The Twins jumped on Dave Stenhouse (10-9) in the fifth when singles by Bernie Allen and Zoilo Versalles, Kralick's sacrifice and Lenny Green's single got two runs across. Allen's run-producing single and a sacrifice fly by Versalles in the sixth put it out of reach.

ROBERTS GETS 8TH

Bunning (13-8) was backed by a 14-hit attack while allowing the Indians only run on a first-inning homer by Al Luplow. The Tigers moved out front in their haul of the first with Dick McAuliffe's two-run single, the key blow of a four-run rally. McAuliffe had four singles for the night and drove in three runs. Steve Boros homered for the Tigers as the Indians went down for their 32nd defeat in the last 44 games, Jim Perry (9-10) lost it.

Roberts (8-6) limited the White Sox to seven hits and didn't allow a run until Floyd Robinson homered in the ninth. The Orioles overcame their damage early against early Wynn (6-10), who was seeking his 29th victory. Wynn forced in a run with a bases-loaded walk in the first inning, then was tagged for a grand slam by John Lewis. Powell, Roberts' triumph was his 242nd. He's third among active pitchers, behind Milwaukee's Warren Spahn and Wynn.

Carl Yastrzemski paced a 15-hit Red Sox offensive that overwhelmed the Athletics and Bill Fischer (4-5). The Boston outfielder drove in five runs with a home run, double and single, contributing his two-bagger to a three-run first inning. Norm Siebern hit two homers for the A's, each time connecting with a male aroar to raise his league-leading runs batted in total to 95. Earl Wilson (11-5) got credit for the victory.

The Pirates, who defeated the Cardinals 24-6 Monday evening to clinch the championship, tallied 14 runs in the second inning on nine hits, four walks and three errors as they batted around twice. Darkness halted the game in the fifth inning.

Steve Weikert, winning moundman, led his team's 19-hit barrage with five hits in as many times at bat and scored five runs. He allowed only four hits and fanned nine in four innings. As a team the Pirates displayed some of the finest hitting seen in the league this season. The Cardinals, normally a fine defensive unit, committed some costly errors which aided the Pirates.

Jack Deardorff, a standout for the Cardinals during the season, rapped a double and a single for the losers in three trips to the plate.

Carl Yastrzemski paced a 15-hit Red Sox offensive that overwhelmed the Athletics and Bill Fischer (4-5). The Boston outfielder drove in five runs with a home run, double and single, contributing his two-bagger to a three-run first inning. Norm Siebern hit two homers for the A's, each time connecting with a male aroar to raise his league-leading runs batted in total to 95. Earl Wilson (11-5) got credit for the victory.

REDS ZERO IN ON PENNANT IN STRETCH RUN

By JOE MOOSHIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Only the mood is different this season with the Cincinnati Reds. The objective is the same as last year—the National League pennant.

Spirit, desire, breaks, good pitching and the big bat of Frank Robinson carried them to the title in 1961. But not until they actually clinched were the sceptics willing to concede.

Then came the disastrous World Series which the New York Yankees won, 4-1, and such murmurs as "lucky" and "cheese champs" were heard. In fact, the Reds were picked by many to finish as low as sixth this year.

HAVE LONG HAUL

The Reds will be the first to admit they have a long haul in a short period of time if they are to successfully defend their National League title. And they are the last to admit they are out of the race although they are in third place, five games behind the league-leading Los Angeles Dodgers.

"There's still a month and a half to go," said Manager Fred Hutchinson Tuesday after his club defeated the Chicago Cubs, 2-0, on Marty Keough's two-run, inside-the-pork homer which backed some nifty pitching by Jim Maloney.

"Remember this spring," said Hutchinson. "A lot of people picked us to finish sixth. Well, we're not going to finish sixth. But we still have a chance for the pennant."

PROS CUT VETS AS TEAMS PREPARE FOR PAY PLAY

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The American Football League's maturity is beginning to show, and it is costing some of its once-established veterans their jobs.

All AFL teams had to pare down to 43 players Tuesday and the league's coaches, four of whom are new in their jobs, discarded a player's experience as a prime requisite for keeping a job.

Oakland which won only two games a year ago, cut 2-year veteran Tom Londerback, a line-backer, Willie Smith, a starting guard a year ago, and tackle Al Banskavage a reserve line-backer last year.

OTHER CHARGES

The Raiders also placed End Bob Coolbaugh and rookie line-backer Joe Walenta on the injured reserve list. Coolbaugh has a broken leg and Walenta a cracked rib.

The New York Titans, another of the AFL's weaker clubs, cut line-backer Ted Greene, defensive end Paul Miller and defensive half-back Johnny Bookman. Greene and Miller were obtained from Dallas in a trade and all three had seen service last year.

Defensive end Gary Wisener, a 2-year pro veteran, was released by Houston, as was 4-year veteran Opie Bandy.

PATRIOTS CUT

The Boston Patriots cut veteran lineman John Simerson. He has been hampered by a knee injury since last season, and was one of five cut Tuesday by Coach Mike Holovak. The others were defensive back John Parrinello, half-back Clarence Mason and Don Christman and tackle Tom Chandle.

In the National Football League the Los Angeles Rams also round themselves talent-rich in linemen, something they've been needing for the past five years. Four of their first five draft choices were linemen in the past college draft, and they signed all four.

With a marked improvement in the offensive and defensive lines in two exhibition victories, Los Angeles dealt John Cornett, their No. 3 draft choice from Rice, to the Dallas Cowboys for an undisclosed draft choice.

The San Francisco 49ers also dealt rookie offensive ends John Burrell of Rice and Dan Coffey of Memphis State to Pittsburgh, also for an undisclosed draft choice.

The Detroit Lions cut rookies Jim Davidson of Maryland, a back, and Karl Anderson of Bowling Green an offensive tackle.

Tom Barry, trainer for Joseph O'Connell, has a perfect record in the Belmont Stakes. He saddled Cavan in 1958 and Celtic Ash in 1960 for O'Connell. Both won the mile and a half race.

Young Anticipates Better Balanced GHS Grid Team; Eight Lettermen On Hand

Don Young, head football coach at Gettysburg High School, and his assistants, Charles Lilley and Earl Little, watch their Warrior squad during a practice session on the high school field Tuesday afternoon. The Warriors will open a 10-game schedule Friday evening, September 7, at Westminster. (Times photo)

"This team will certainly be a better balanced ball club than we have had in the past," Don Young, head coach at Gettysburg High School, said as he talked to a Times reporter on the way to the practice field Tuesday.

It was a drizzling afternoon as approximately 52 prospective grid candidates headed for the field following a short 20-minute "skull" session. The most important thing that was noticed at this particular session and which had been absent in the last couple of years, was the tremendous spirit. Each boy seemed determined, come rain or beating sun, that he was going to stay on the squad and gain a berth on one of the first two units.

Young will be counting on eight lettermen to pave the way for his winged-T offense. The quarterbacking load will fall on the shoulders of Senior John Longanecker while veterans Joe Riley and Jim Newman are expected to lend a helping hand in the backfield. One of the biggest battles is being waged for the full-back slot with Sophomore Ronnie Plank and Junior Kenny Kime heading the field. Backfield Coach Earl Little said, "Plank is coming along fast and could turn into an excellent fullback." Sophomore Tom Rohrbough has also been looking good as a runner from that position.

LAKE OF DEPTH

Despite the fact that the depth is thin, the interior portion of the line seems to contain the most strength. Plank and Ed Zeigler, a pair of top notch seniors, are the two veterans. Plank is a strong tackle while Zeigler is a big anchor at center. Sophomores Dan Heagey and Dave Schwenk are making a strong bid for a guard post. "Schwenk is a Junior who is looking real good," Young said. Paul Kump, 150-pound Junior, is also pushing for a guard post.

Working with Plank at the opposite tackle slot will be letterman Gary Guise. Guise is an aggressive 5'11", 173-pound junior who is capable of opening up the holes and making devastating tackles.

The front line end positions are in pretty good shape with Gary Nelson and Bob Beeier filling the bill. Both men being seniors, Beeier is 6'2", 185 pounds while Nelson is 6'1", 158.

Young stated, "Right now we are trying to pick out our best eleven for the first unit and will start from there to fill in behind them or form the second unit. Much of the season's success will depend on Longanecker's ability to come through and handle the quarterback assignment."

COACHING CHANGES

As far as entering the new league, Young said, "I feel that one of the tougher teams will be East Pennsboro, but I will also say that I think this will be a well-balanced league." Gettysburg will play in the Blue Mountain League for the first time this season.

Auto, Cycle Races Listed At Grove

WILLIAMS GROVE — Will 50 laps be too much for Bobby Hersch?

This question will be answered Friday night at Williams Grove Speedway. The modified stock cars of the Cumberland Valley Racing Association will be racing for a purse in excess of $3,500 with the winner of the 50-lap feature, representing "the Grove" at the 100-miler at Langhorne in October. The last time Hersch drove his No. 39 in a distance run at the "Grove," he was quite a distance behind the winner, Bobby Abel. In fact, Hersch was 12th in the race.

A large crowd is expected to fill the grandstand, infield and third turn areas Friday night. More than 11,000 fans were on hand last week at Central Pennsylvania's best half-mile speedway. Action gets underway Friday at 8:30.

A large field of iron-horse jockeys will be on hand for Sunday's motorcycle program. The nine event card starts at 2 p.m. Al Walters, Dillsburg, has received entries from many of the top riders in the country and more are expected. Tony Murguia, Key West Fla.; Elmer Morra, Pittsburgh, and George Koeder, Monroeville, O., have already signed.

Big Ten Goes Back To Rose Bowl Pact

CHICAGO (AP) — The Rose Bowl, granddaddy of all New Year's Day football bowl games, again has become an official family affair between the Big Ten and the Athletic Association of Western Universities.

They formally certified a continuous contract Tuesday whereby the Big Ten's "most representative" team will appear in the Pasadena classic yearly against the AAUW champion, The West Coast group is made up of Southern California, UCLA, California, Stanford, Washington and Washington State.

The "open end" pact, similar to the one the Big Ten had with the Pacific Coast Conference before its demise in 1960, requires that cancellation by either party be on such a date which would permit two more games to be played.

The Big Ten will continue to enforce its rule that no team can appear twice in succession.

Asper Honored By Teammates

The McSherrystown Athletic Association, sponsor of a team in the South Penn Sandlot Baseball League, held its annual banquet Sunday evening at the McSherrystown Fire Co. hall.

Highlight of the affair was the presentation of the team's Most Valuable Player trophy to Ron Asper. Making the presentation was Flavian Smith, manager.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the McSherrystown Fire Co. served the meal.

SQUAD TO DINE

Members of the Moose Little League baseball squad will be guests of the lodge's athletic committee at a banquet to be held at the Moose home, York St., Thursday evening at 6:30.

Russia Warns U.S. Against U-2 Flights

LONDON (AP)—Radio Moscow warned Sunday night that three American U-2 reconnaissance planes stationed in Britain can expect the same fate as Francis Gary Powers' spy plane if they approach Soviet territory.

A U.S. Air Force spokesman said the aircraft are on temporary duty to sample the upper atmosphere over the North Atlantic for radio-active debris resulting from nuclear explosions.

The planes, which flew from Plattsburgh, N.Y., Sunday, are probably capable of long flights at higher altitudes than any other Western aircraft.

CONTINUE STRIKE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A new company demand on Sunday that bottling girls also do janitorial work prompted 600 members of Distillery Union Local 263, International Brewery Workers, to vote to continue a six-week-old strike against Publicker Industries.

Union and management negotiators have been meeting with a federal mediator in an effort to reach an agreement. The union is also seeking a wage increase.

3 ARE KILLED AS CARS CRASH INTO TRAINS

POMONA, N.J. (AP) — Three persons—one from Philadelphia—were killed in two separate collisions involving private autos and Pennsylvania Reading Seashore Line trains Monday.

A man and woman perished in a crash at Pomona, in Atlantic County, and earlier across the state in Gloucester County, a man was killed in a collision at Pitman.

The victims of the Pomona crash were identified as Joseph P. Eagan, 50, of Philadelphia, and a passenger in his car, Ruth E. Doerer, 47, Towson, Md.

CAR STRIKES ENGINE

The car struck the rear of the engine of a Penn-Reading passenger train bound for Philadelphia from Atlantic City.

Robert Raymond, 38, of Blackwood, suffered fatal injuries in the Pitman collision when a Camden-bound PRSL train struck the rear of his station wagon at the Lamb's Road crossing.

His vehicle was thrown 200 feet along the tracks and down an embankment in the collision.

The three-car train came to a stop afterward with its emergency brakes locked. The last car came uncoupled but seven passengers inside were not hurt. The passengers were taken to Camden by bus.

Lindgren, believed one of only a handful to make the arduous journey, completed the walk across mountains and frozen wasteland in four weeks. He had expected to take six.

Russians Explode Nuclear Test Device

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet Union has set off a nuclear explosion of several megatons in the atmosphere, reports the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

A megaton is the equivalent of the explosive force of a million tons of TNT.

The AEC said the detonation was Monday in the vicinity of the Soviet test site at Novaya Zemlya.

This is the fourth nuclear detonation reported by the AEC in the current series of Soviet tests which began Aug. 5.

House Leaders Try For Poll Tax Vote

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House leadership will try next Monday for a vote on a proposed amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the poll tax as a requirement for voting in federal elections.

Speaker John W. McCormack, D-Mass., said Monday the proposed amendment will be called up under a procedure requiring a favorable vote of two-thirds of the House members present.

The bill has been lodged in the House Rules Committee since the Senate passed it March 27.

Five states now impose taxes on registered voters. They are Virginia, Alabama, Arkansas, Mississippi and Texas. If passed by Congress the amendment would have to be ratified by 38 of the 50 states to become effective.

3 KILLED IN CRASH ON PIKE

FANNETTSBURG, Pa. (AP) — A Pittsburgh man and two of his daughters were killed Monday in a violent, truck-car crash caused by a tire blowout on the Pennsylvania Turnpike in Franklin County.

The victims were Abraham Spector, 40, and his daughters, Lynn, 4, and Judy, 11.

Three others were injured, including another of Spector's daughters, 6-year-old Ronna, who was in critical condition, and truck driver Robert Quesenberry, 38, of Augusta, Ill., in serious condition.

Quesenberry's relief driver, John Nelson, 38, of Huntville, Ill., was in satisfactory condition. State police at Newville said the accident occurred when the Spector car blew a tire, swerved into a concrete bridge abutment, then bounced into the path of the oncoming truck. The truck plumed over a 100-foot embankment after hitting the car.

The accident occurred three miles east of the Turnpike's Willow Hill interchange.

Spector, a widower, and his three daughters, apparently were returning home from a vacation at the time of the crash, police said.

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Government troops backed by fighter planes, U.S. helicopters, and armored river boats launched today the second major attack in a week against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam's rebel-infested southland.

Congress Gives Student Citizenship

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hatch Samuel Arukin, a Pennsylvania State University student born in Greece of Armenian parentage, can consider the United States his permanent residence today — thanks to an Act of Congress.

The House Monday approved a Senate passed bill granting permanent residence to Arukin.

The 26-year-old student at Penn State's College of Business Administration came to the United States in 1958 from Ethiopia.

His father had moved the family there after World War II. The father and Arukin's brother had been imprisoned by the Germans, while Arukin and his mother spent the war years in Athens.

DONALD CRISP BLASTS MOVIE STAR SYSTEM

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — When Donald Crisp talks about the movie business, Hollywood might well listen.

It's not merely because Crisp has served as a film actor longer than anyone else. He started at $3.50 per day in 1906, though he playfully claims it was his father who made those early flickers.

He has another credential as elder statesman to the film industry. As adviser to A. P. Giannini, he helped finance movies during their formative years. "Without the Bank of Italy (now Bank of America) the movie business would never have grown to what it became," said Crisp.

"SPENCER'S MOUNTAIN"

The actor is now making his 42nd film, "Spencer's Mountain," and he paused for some reflections on the state of the industry.

"I think the star system has gotten out of hand," he commented. "When you have a star running up the bill for one movie to $26 million by stubbornness—and I am referring to 'Mutiny on the Bounty'—then something is terribly wrong."

"When a picture like 'Cleopatra' requires $70-80 million to pay off — partly because of one star — then somebody's being stupid."

OUT OF HAND

"The whole thing has gotten out of hand. People like Frank Sinatra are not just stars any more; they are moguls. I just don't think stars are that important."

"Somebody has got to blow the whistle. Somebody has got to stay on the set and say, 'No, you can't spend $5 million for that sequence; we'll find some other way to get the point across.'"

"Cleopatra could have been made for $7½ million right here in Hollywood. Instead of throwing all the emphasis on Liz Taylor, you could have given the role to an unknown and let the story carry the picture."

He said the star system reached the point of insanity when the late Gary Cooper in his mature years was still making love on the screen to young girls. Instead of fashioning the industry around the talents of a few names, Crisp advocated a return to hard-headed business tactics. If the stars don't go along, drop them.

High Court Judges Hear Smith Appeal

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — Two state Supreme Court justices have set Sept. 23 for argument before the full court on an appeal by the Smith Transfer Corp. against an order it reinstate nine dismissed teamsters at its Philadelphia terminal.

The two justices—Benjamin R. Jones and Michael J. Eagen—set the date Monday night after refusing to intervene in the dispute.

Earlier in the day, sitting in Luzerne County Court, the two had heard half an hour of arguments on an appeal by Smith Transfer to overturn a ruling by Judge Victor H. Blanc of Philadelphia.

Blanc had ordered the company to reinstate the nine, all members of the insurgent Voice of the Teamsters, who had been replaced by men loyal to the local leadership.

MANHASSET, N.Y. (AP) — Abraham Levitt, 82, millionaire builder who devised a home building assembly line and pioneered mass produced postwar housing in the eastern part of the nation, died Monday. His firm, Levitt and Sons, built an estimated 60,000 homes. He was born in Brooklyn, St. Petersburg, Fla. (AP) — Earl Eastwood, 66, a veteran newspaperman who had been associated with publications in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida, died Sunday. He had served as an editorial writer for the St. Petersburg Times and Philadelphia Public Ledger; managing editor of the Dayton (Ohio) Journal and editor of World Call, a religious magazine. He was born in Winfield, Kan.

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Dr. Arthur Norris Hughes, 71, pastor

STATE BANKING RESOURCES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Total banking resources in Pennsylvania jumped from $8,892,698,776 to $9,411,266,723 during the 1961-62 fiscal year, reports the State Banking Department.

Department aides said Monday the biggest increase in resources came from a $369,063,506 boost in loans and discounts. The next largest increase was a boost of $85,426,368 in U.S. government obligations (bonds, treasury notes, etc.).

NEW YORK (AP) — San Francisco is to be the background of a new musical show being written by Richard Morris, author of "The Unsinkable Molly Brown."

"Golden Gate" will span nine years from the 1906 earthquake to the Panama-Pacific Exposition. When the book is completed, the melody-writing stint is to be offered Meredith Wilson, composer for Morris' earlier script.

NEW YORK (AP) — Gian-Carlo Menotti's modern operetta "The Saint of Bleeker Street" is being enlisted in the cause of international cultural unity.

The drama, concerning an Italian girl in New York's Greenwich Village, has been translated into Spanish at the behest of the Symphony of Musical Arts.

The organization plans to present the adaptation here at a series of free performances for the city's Spanish-speaking population, save send the work on a South American tour.

MINOR MISHAP HALTS NUCLEAR SHIP VOYAGE

By FRANK CAREY
Associate Press Science Writer
ABOARD SAVANNAH (AP)—Gov. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia was taking a little snooze in his cabin when the Savannah, world's first nuclear-powered merchant ship, came to an unscheduled halt 40 miles east of the Virginia coast due to a mishap.

Congressman G. Elliot Hagan, D-Ga., and two other members of the Savannah City Council together with their wives were basking in the late afternoon sun on an aft deck when two black balls and a blue and yellow pennant were hastily run up on hal-yards on a midship mast.

What had happened late Monday was that the 22,000-ton, $43-million Savannah had run into a bit of trouble on her maiden voyage, a trip which may mark the opening of the atomic age of merchant shipping.

1ST REGULAR VOYAGE

Vandiver and eight other Georgians and their wives are on the Savannah's first voyage to a regular commercial port.

The ship left Yorktown, Va., Monday morning for a two-day trip to Savannah, Ga., which will be her home port. The mission was designed to demonstrate the feasibility of employing nuclear power to propel merchant vessels.

The two black balls meant "We are out of command, we have no power, keep clear of us." The colored pennant was the international shipping code warning that: "We are steering with difficulty."

ELECTRONIC MALFUNCTION

Ship technicians had been testing a recently modified mechanism for controlling the ship's speed. There was some malfunction in the electronic mechanism and as a result the Savannah's big nuclear reactor, capable of keeping the ship in operation for 13½ years with a single fueling of uranium, automatically shut down.

Officials of the States Marine Lines, Inc. of New York, operators of the new nuclear merchant ship for the U.S. government, told reporters that while the shutdown

Commissioners Get Welfare Warning

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Welfare Secretary Ruth Grigg Horting cautioned Tuesday that counties without child welfare programs should take "this home-rule responsibility" to heart unless they want to lose it by default.

She addressed the annual convention of the state Association of County Commissioners meeting.

She also urged the counties to take advantage of the $300,000 state subsidy program available for the strengthening of juvenile probation services.

GEN. WATSON BRUSHES OFF RED PROTESTS

By CARL HARTMAN
BERLIN (AP)—The Russians tried twice to protest stoning their military buses by West Berliners and were brushed off by Maj. Gen. Albert Watson II, the U.S. commandant in Berlin, a spokesman for the U.S. mission said Tuesday.

He said the Soviet deputy commander, Col. C. V. Tarasov, called on the mission headquarters Sunday and Monday night to protest the stonings by West Berliners angered by the fatal wounding of an East German refugee by East Berlin border guards.

"On his second call, the Soviet officer was told that Gen. Watson was not available to meet him," the spokesman said.

Soviet buses, taking replacements to guard the Soviet war caused some temporary inconvenience to the passengers and crew, the incident tended to "prove the safety of the ship's reactor."

They explained that the mishap shows that any malfunction of a related system, however minor, causes a quick shutdown of the nuclear furnace as a safety measure.

A diesel-powered generator automatically cut in when the atomic furnace quit.

The atomic power plant was back in business 1½ hours later.

SPENT 3 DAYS TRAPPED IN OLD GOLD MINE PIT

HILL CITY, S.D. (AP)—"I made some bargains with God—but I always was sure that, somehow, I'd be rescued," Airman Gerald Becker said in telling about the 3½ days he spent trapped in an abandoned gold mine pit near here.

The chance halt of a tourist party brought his rescue Monday.

Becker, 18, of Mapleton, Minn., had last Thursday night off from his duties as a mechanic at nearby Ellsworth Air Force Base. He decided to go swimming in Sheridan Lake.

"But it was too cold and I started exploring instead," said Becker Monday night at the base hospital, where he is under observation.

"I came across this big hole in the ground in the woods and started walking around it, peering down. All of a sudden the edge gave way and I fell 50 feet to the bottom."

After recovering from the initial shock, Becker looked for a hold on the shale and slate walls to enable him to climb out but found none. Then he started shouting for help.

When darkness fell, he gave that up and made himself a primitive bed out of brush that had fallen into the pit.

"But I couldn't sleep very much because it got pretty cold," he said. "It must have fallen to about 50 or less and I only had light trousers and a T-shirt."

Friday, Saturday and Sunday took a long time to pass.

FAMILY HEARD CRIES

Early Monday the vacationing Pete Ptacek family from Phoenix, Ariz., stopped in the area to let their youngsters exercise. Becker, with his now very hoarse throat, heard them and called out.

Ptacek hurried to a cabin resort near the lake for help.

Two forestry men, a rancher and Ptacek returned to the pit with a rope, and with it tied around his waist Becker made his way up the sheer wall.

"All I could think of all the time was how my ma would be torn up if anything happened," said the airman. "Yes, and I made some bargains with God—but I always thought I'd be rescued and that confidence helped me along."

Scranton Grocer Dies Of Injuries

SCRANTON, Pa. (AP)—Injuries suffered when struck by an auto here Monday night caused the death in State Hospital Tuesday of Stratos Hedges, 65, Scranton grocer.

Police said Hedges was struck by a car operated by Carlton Quiller, 19, of Scranton. Quiller, who said Hedges walked in front of his auto, was charged with involuntary manslaughter.

WATSON ANGRY

These sources said Watson is demanding that the West Berlin administration take all necessary precautionary measures to prevent the rock hurling.

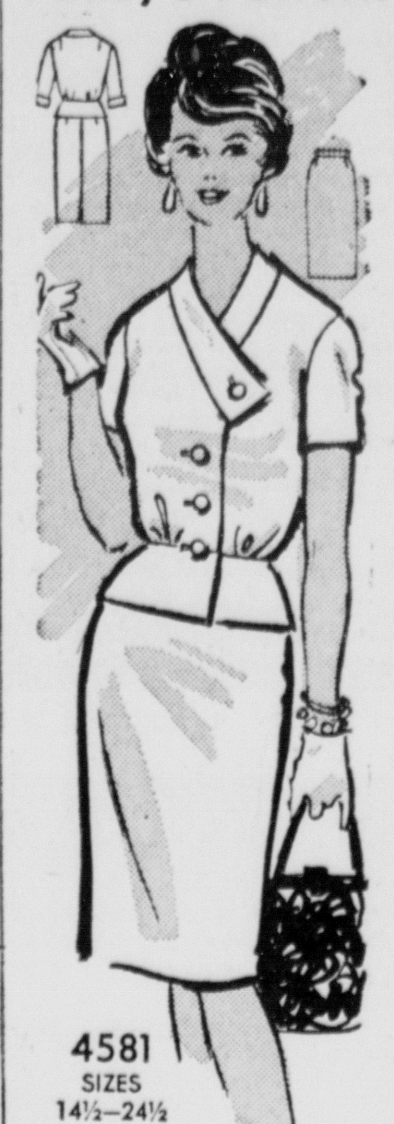

The stonings have occurred in the U.S. sector of Berlin for which Watson as top representative of the occupying power, has ultimate jurisdiction.

Brandt will meet the three Western commandants in an attempt to get more Allied support for Berliners along the wall.

RED SKELTON PREPARES FOR 12TH SEASON

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Those off-stage moaning noises you hear are probably just the anguished cries of the nation's comics, complaining about the killing qualities of television.

Look, they wail, Bob Newhart lasted just one season. Sid Caesar is coming back only after a long convalescence from a bad case of over-exposure. George Gobel no longer has his own show. Danny Thomas, Joey Bishop, and some of the others have integrated their routines in situation comedies and are now mostly actors.

Really, television doesn't seem to have any place for the comedian with set routines except for three minutes once in a while on an Ed Sullivan show or—for peanuts—on one of those late evening sessions.

DURABLE RED

But while most comics fret, an astonishing clown named Red Skelton is preparing to start his 12th television season by increasing the length of his show from 30 minutes to one hour.

The durable Skelton, at this moment, is so unconcerned about it that he is off on a vacation from television—playing to audiences at state fairs in Illinois, Indiana and Ohio.

"They told us to do an hour instead of a half hour," shrugged Cecil Barker, Red's producer for the past seven years, "so we'll do an hour. Red still only works two days a week."

HOUR IS EASIER

Barker insists that an hour-long show is in many respects easier to pull off than a shorter one.

"It's the nature of Red," the producer explained. "He gets tired of material when he runs through it too often. Jack Benny, for instance, starts with a reading, follows with rehearsals and then they shoot the show. Red, by his own chemistry, loses enthusiasm. The jokes don't seem funny and his performance goes down. So we don't go through all that."

Mauch Likes Phils' Chances Next Year

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—With the ink on his 1963 contract hardly dry and the current season a long way from over, Manager Gene Mauch of the seventh-place Philadelphia Phillies was looking today to next year.

"I think we have a club that is coming and I am glad to be coming back next year," Mauch said after the team announced his signing to a 1963 contract Monday.

The club called the contract an extension of the old one. Terms were not disclosed.

Mauch, 36, is now in his third season with the Phils. A onetime infielder with the Chicago Cubs and the Boston Red Sox, he took over after the third game of the 1960 season when Eddie Sawyer resigned suddenly.

LET WOMAN, 77, GO THRU WALL TO W. BERLIN

DETROIT (AP) — A family whose efforts to reunite found a passage through Berlin's wall expects to meet here today after 25 years of anguished separation.

Margaret Reuter's dream—one she thought could never be—is scheduled to come true at 6:15 p.m. when her mother steps down from a plane at Metropolitan Airport.

Helena Gruebna, 77, who hasn't seen her daughter in 25 years and never has met her five grandchildren, passed through a Berlin checkpoint into the West Tuesday.

PRAYERS ANSWERED

She was one of the very few allowed to cross to West Berlin by East German authorities since they built the wall a year ago.

"I tell you, it's the answer to our prayers," said Mrs. Reuter, whose home is in Grass Lake, a Jackson, Mich., suburb.

"We've been hoping and praying for this and now it's really happened."

YEARS OF EFFORT

The release climaxed years of effort, helped in recent months by G. Vernon Leopold, a Detroit attorney who was once a refugee himself.

Leopold entered the case last May after the death of Mrs. Gruebna's husband, Jacob, in Mount Clemens, Mich. In Berlin to settle the estate, Leopold suggested he seek Mrs. Gruebna's release.

Leopold told his wife here by phone Tuesday that Mrs. Gruebna is "very relieved" to have made the passage.

"STAYED TOO LONG"

Mrs. Gruebna, who lived in Michigan and Wisconsin from 1913 to 1937, "wanted to go back and see her people," her daughter explained.

"She just stayed too long."

Mrs. Gruebna lived in West Prussia until moving to Hartmannsdorf, near Dresden, after World War II.

Mother and daughter lost all contact during the war and, until Mrs. Gruebna reached her daughter from the Soviet sector after the war, Mrs. Reuter thought her to be dead.

CBS WILL TRY NEW COMEDY, WEEKLY SHOW

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—All television roles whether leading parts or walk-ons, fall into one of two categories: tours de force or potshots.

This is the analysis of Audrey Christie, a happy refugee from Broadway and soap opera, currently playing a patsy in "Fair Exchange." CBS' forthcoming experiment in weekly, hour-long situation comedy.

"A tour de force role is one in which something happens to the character itself," Miss Christie explained. "It is the narcotic addict, the one who commits the murder, the neurotic woman who keeps telephoning the police when she's alone and scared in the lonely house."

ELABORATE DEVICE

"But if you play a patsy, you are busy running around laying plot and setting things up so they will happen to other characters. Patsies are the man in the next call, landladies who saw the murderer or—as I am now—a nagging mother."

Miss Christie's patsy mother is commanding general of a TV-type household consisting of hen-pecked husband and teen-age son plus a young visitor from overseas.

This is all part of an elaborate device—contrasting the homelife and mores of Hollywood's conception of average, middle-class American and British families—to keep the home viewers chuckling for a full hour (less time out for commercials, of course) come fall. At its foundation, it is really a double feature—two situation comedies in one big package.

SWAP DAUGHTERS

The gimmick that weds the two is having the English family and the American family exchange their teen-age daughters for a year. Each show will relate what is happening in both families.

All this, of course, makes it necessary to have two complete casts and two complete groups of sets. But there is only one camera crew, so things are worked out to have the English cast rehearsing in one part of the studio while the American cast is busy before the film cameras, and vice versa.

BAPTIST BUSTLE

ATLANTA (AP) — "Southern Baptists are fast becoming a group of schedule-chasing activists who have no time to think or dream," C. E. Autrey, director of the denomination's evangelism division, told a recent meeting here. "We are doing a lot of practical things, but we are in danger of running out of spiritual power."

Overnight guests Sunday at the Brown home were their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Brown, Dover, Del.

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

FABRICS STRICK IT RICH. For daytime wear, fall fabrics stress quality and richness. And their look of luxury strengthens the elegance of incoming silhouettes. Just by way of handsome material, the spare suit—all elegant line—becomes a fashion treasure-trove.

In dress fabrics, wool and silky crepes vie with knits. Crepes are sheer and grainy. Knits range from lacy to firm to bulky. Some are patterned, some sculptured, some leaped.

Wool jerseys and matte jersey of silk, nylon or anel also make a showing. Fall cottons seem limitless. Styled like wool in plaids and prints, they have the depth and dimension for cool-weather wear.

Suitings, encompass both smooth and textured fabrics, and so include worsted, flannel, tweed, corduroy and knits. Tweeds and flannels make a mark in dress weights, too.

In every category, there are more blends. The aim is enhanced appearance or performance, and it is wonderfully well accomplished.

As for color, it is glorious. The newest include subtle neutrals such as off-white, silver and sooty gray, almond green, greige. Vital shades are represented with true blues, glow reds, molten gold. In the deep group, shades run to winter navy, winey reds, tartan green, topaz. Among the browns, count honey and chocolate. Add black and white, and colors combined in plaids and prints—and you've got the whole picture.

To make the most richly flattering choices, use this rule of thumb: The smoother a fabric, the more slimming; the brighter a color, the less trimming.

MOST FLATTERING COLORS

In fashion, nothing makes you lovelier than color. It can enhance your skin, hair, eyes and figures; it can express your individuality and style. Great powers, those! To learn how to put them to work for you, read our leaflet, "YOUR MOST FLATTERING COLORS."

ORDER ISSUED TO PENNSY IN WRECK PROBE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Penn-

sylvanias railroads were ordered by the Public Utility Commission Tuesday night to discontinue allowing trains to travel over sections of track improperly anchored.

The action stemmed from two days of hearings conducted by the PUC and the Interstate Commerce Commission into the July 28 train wreck at Steelton which killed 19 persons and injured over 100.

An FCC safety expert testified at the hearings that the failure of a Pennsylvania Railroad track crew to restore the proper number of rail anchors in the track was one of half a dozen contributing factors in the wreck.

PUC Chairman Joseph Sharfstein said the commission is weighing other orders on track maintenance.

"This is expected to be the first in a number of corrective interim orders by the commission pending our further hearings in the case," he said.

Boy's Body Found In Old Attic Trunk

CARNEGIE, Pa. (AP) — The body of Dennis Angle, 8, was found in an old trunk in the attic of his Carnegie home Tuesday.

Police said the youngster had been reading comic books in the attic with his brother, Robert, 12. Robert left the attic. When his brother didn't join him later, he returned and found the body.

The Allegheny County coroner's office said the latch on the trunk lid locked automatically.

Reis Burglary Trial Set For September

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP) — The second burglary trial of entertainer Lillian Reis will be listed for the September term of Schuylkill County Court, Dist. Atty. Harry W. Lightstone said Tuesday.

Miss Reis, 33-year-old owner of a Philadelphia night club where she once danced, is accused in a huge 1959 burglary at the Pottsville home of John B. Rich. Her first trial last year ended in a hung jury.

Lightstone said her trial could be delayed if Miss Reis appeals a four-judge decision earlier this week denying her a change of venue.

CARPENTER LOST 6 LBS. ON FLIGHT

By JOHN BARBOUR

Associated Press Science Writer

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Confident smiles to the contrary, it costs in terms of stress and wear and tear to make the kind of orbital adventures U.S. and Soviet astronauts are making.

There are tell-tale signs of stress but few of them are advertised or talked about openly.

U.S. space experts have detailed information about the medical performance of their astronauts. Little is known of the physiological reaction of Soviet astronauts to the rigors of space flight.

LOSS OF WATER

One critical sign of stress can be associated with weight loss, more specifically loss of large amounts of water.

Indications of this came from Tuesday's conference reviewing the technical details of Malcolm Scott Carpenter's flight May 24. It was the second orbital flight in a U.S. spacecraft.

Carpenter, a 154-pounder at flight time, dropped six pounds by the time he weighed in aboard the recovery ships 15 hours later.

Most people lose some weight in the course of a strenuous day. But there are indications water loss can be caused by hormonal activity—more specifically activity of adrenal gland hormones, believed to be indicators of stress.

Health

For white collar workers only? No one can have them. Ulcers are a common complaint throughout the United States. Beseating adults and children in cities and rural areas. The typical peptic ulcer case is an anxious middle-aged man. Duodenal and gastric ulcers. Also afflict men particularly. Every day, 50,000 workers are absent because of ulcers.

WILL UNPACK HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Rules Committee, packed last year to give liberals control, probably will be unpacked next year to put a conservative coalition back in the saddle.

In his last big major legislative battle, the late Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas succeeded by a five-vote margin, 217 to 212, in increasing the committee's membership from 12 to 15 on Jan. 31, 1961.

The objective was to switch control from four Republicans and two Democrats to eight Democrats. In general, the idea worked out successfully, with many bills clearing the committee by an 8-7 margin.

BACKED BY JFK

Before the enlargement, major bills often were stymied by a 6-6 deadlock.

The increase raised Democratic membership from 8 to 10 and Republican from 4 to 5. But two of the Democrats, Chairman Howard W. Smith of Virginia and Rep. William M. Colmer of Mississippi, often voted with the Republicans.

Rayburn had tacit support from the White House in the bitter fight to increase the membership.

CHANGE TO EXPIRE

Often overlooked is the official language of the resolution that brought about the change. It stipulated that the rules group should

COURT RULING COULD INJURE MILK FARMERS

TOWANDA, Pa. (AP) — North-eastern Pennsylvania dairy farmers could lose nearly $22 million a year as the result of a recent U.S. Supreme Court decision that removed a trade barrier for milk sold by outside producers in the New York-New Jersey market, federal figures showed today.

Dairy farmers in the northern tier counties are looking for discussions Thursday at a board meeting of the Mutual Federation of Independent Dairy Cooperatives in Syracuse and of the Dairyman's League in New York City to result in a program which will aid them.

Conclusions of the two meetings will be presented Sept. 3 at a public meeting in the New York City office of C. J. Blanford, federal market administrator for the New York-New Jersey Area.

PRIOR TO RULING

Prior to the ruling, outside producers who sold in the New York-New Jersey Market were required by law to pay about $2.30 a hundred-weight into a fund for regular market members.

Since the court decision, U.S. Agriculture Secretary Orville Freeman has suspended some provisions of the New York-New Jersey milk order.

have 15 members only for the 87th Congress, which goes out of business next January.

Unless the battle is fought anew, the committee will drop to 12 members in the Congress convening in January. The combination of four Republicans plus Smith and Colmer would be enough to prevent the six more liberal Democrats from mustering a majority vote needed to clear legislation for a House vote.

House leaders haven't decided whether to try next year to keep the committee at its present strength.

GOOD OLD MARV IS MERRIWELL IN METS' DRIVE

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Now they are calling Marv Merriwells Marv Thronberry the best first base coach in the business.

It isn't that he is so shrewd stealing catchers' signs. It isn't that he is so crafty directing traffic. It isn't that he is so slick sending a runner off to steal at exactly the right moment.

But who else can come off the coaching lines to pinch hit and blast a game winning home run? NO ONE BUT MARV

No one, that's who. No one except Marv Merriwells.

Over the season, Marv Merriwells has become the favorite whipping boy of the New York Mets' fans in the Polo Grounds. He has an unfortunate knack of doing just the wrong thing at the right time.

But when his homer (with two on and two out in the ninth) snapped the Mets' losing streak at 13 games Tuesday and gave them a 5-4 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in the second half of a doubleheader, Marv Merriwells suddenly turned into Frank Merriwell. He was the darling of the fans.

"Don't think I'm not happy," the easy-going Marv said today. "I like applause just as much as the next guy. I couldn't have been more pleased when those people cheered me. I don't get much of it, you know."

HOUSTON 45S FIRE BLANKS AGAINST PHILS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The

Houston Colt 45s, you could almost say, might do just as well wearing hobbles and handcuffs against Philadelphia.

The Phils, holding down seventh place in the National League, have yet to be beaten by Houston. They won their 14th and 15th Tuesday night.

And with a little luck and more of the same they might even go undefeated against the Colts this season. The teams play only one more series, three days in Houston.

CRAFT ANGRY

How did it happen? "You tell me," says Harry Craft, the Texans' field boss. "If I had the answer, I'd stop this nonsense."

"I've tried everything, includ. cluding ranting and raving, to try to shake up the club."

The Phils ace, Art Mahaffey, won his 17th game against 10 losses in the opener, 5-3, but he had trouble keeping the handcuffs on Houston. The Colts outthrew the Phils, 7-6.

Veteran Roy Sievers drove in two runs for Philadelphia with two singles.

In the nightcap rookie Jack Hamilton, who also went the route, won his seventh in 18 decisions, 7-4. Johnny Callison backed him up with four hits in four tries, including a home run. Sievers also homered.

WASHINGTON (AP)—There's no place for the bankrupt New Haven Railroad in the proposed Pennsylvania New York Central Transportation Co., says a chief architect of the merger that would create the east's biggest rail line.

James W. Symes, board chairman of the Pennsylvania Railroad, firmly opposed the New Haven's bid for a spot in the proposed merger of the Pennsylvania and the New York Central.

A lawyer for the financially troubled New Haven strongly supported the merger idea Tuesday at a hearing before Interstate Commerce Commission examiners.

Joseph Auerbach, counsel for trustees of the bankrupt New Haven, repeatedly asked Symes about possible benefits of including the New Haven in the merger plan.

New Haven trustees have said they will fight the Pennsylvania-Central merger unless the bankrupt line is counted in.

Symes has suggested that the New Haven and other New England railroads merge into a terminal system which would have access to three big trunk railroad groups in the east.

These, he said, would be the Pennsylvania-Central, Norfolk & Western-Nickel Plate-Wabash, the Baltimore & Ohio-Chesapeake & Ohio.

Mergers which would create those combinations have been proposed to the ICC.

The Pennsylvania's chairman said he does not expect to head the firm which would be created by the merger. The 65-year-old railroad executive was asked whether he expected to be "intermediate boss" of the new firm.

"I do not know but I don't believe so," said Symes. Top officials of both the Pennsylvania and the Central said the answer surprised them.

But after the hearing, Symes told a reporter "I had hoped to retire at 65, and I didn't." Symes reached 65 last month, and the Pennsylvania board voted to exempt him from retirement provisions so he could lead the merger drive.

WILLIAMS IS PA. OPEN GOLF TITLE WINNER

By JACK LYNCH

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP)—A lightly tapped two-foot putt rimmed the cup on the 18th hole and reluctantly dropped in to give Henry Williams his second Pennsylvania State Open golf crown by a single stroke.

"I almost had a heart attack," the Berkleigh Country Club pro quipped after winning the title with a 36-hole total of 143 and picking up a $750 check Tuesday.

Skee Riegel of Philadelphia's Old York Road Club, set a course record with a 67 in the opening round, but slipped to an 80 over Hershey's soggy aces Tuesday.

3 BIRDIE PUTTS

Williams, who won the event in 1954 and was runner-up in two playoffs, was approaching the 12th hole when he got word that Buddy Heckman of Manor was home with a 69 that gave him the lead at 144.

Williams, two over par at that point, said: "I figured I'd better do something quick."

He did, canning birdie putts of 15 and 4 feet on the 12th and 13th holes, respectively. He parred the remaining holes to close with a regulation 73.

Heckman took second prize of $400.

Scores among the 50 select pros and amateurs were high when two heavy thunderstorms left the 6,900 yard course damp and heavy. The only other players able to match par were Art Wall Jr., of Pocono Manor and Bob Batdorf, of Manor.

COLUMBUS discovered the 427-square-mile West Indies island of Martinique in 1502 on his fourth voyage. He took on fresh water and rested three days.

WELDING TORCH SPREADS FIRES IN ST. LOUIS

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—Flames turned the old unoccupied Carson-Union-May-Stern building into a roaring torch Monday and spread a series of fires over the heart of downtown St. Louis.

Police fought to keep back spectators as walls of the eight-story building collapsed. Flames leaped 100 feet and more above the old structure which was being torn down to make way for a new 25-story office building.

Eleven firemen, including Fire Chief James J. Mullen, and one spectator were injured or overcome by the smoke and heat.

200 FIREMEN

More than 200 firemen and 40 pieces of fire-fighting equipment were used as embers rained down and set other fires as far as five blocks away.

The secondary fires were quickly brought under control. An air-conditioning tower atop the 17-story Syndicate Trust Building, which houses the Scruggs-Vandervoort Barney Department Store burst into flames. So did the roofs of the Statler-Hilton Hotel, the St. Louis Merchandise Building.

FLAMES SPREAD

Flames from the main fire whipped across Olive Street against the old Post-Dispatch Building, no longer occupied by the newspaper. Fire spread to the largely unoccupied fifth and sixth floors of the structure. KSD and KSD-TV studios are located on the first two floors. But the station remained on the air, and programs were broadcast from the transmitter site in St. Louis County.

Firemen theorized the blaze started from a welder's torch used by one of the 12 wrecking company workmen who were tearing down the 89-year-old structure.

Vigorous Program Aids U.S. Defense

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A vigorous defense program is keeping the United States ahead of the Russians in missile and bomber capabilities, says Rep. James E. Van Zandt, Republican candidate for U.S. senator.

He told the National Society of Public Accountants Monday "There is no need for us to be more afraid of the Russians than they are of us."

Among the weapons statistics Van Zandt cited were 85 operational intercontinental ballistic missiles for the United States as against 50 to 75 for Russia.

GREMLINS HIT X-15 MONDAY TEST FLIGHT

By RALPH DIGHTON

EDWARDS AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—Electronic gremlins struck at the X-15 again Monday crippling part of its electronic brain while the rocket plane was streaking through the sky with its glowing hot fuselage making popping sounds like pistol shots.

Air Force Maj. Robert Rushworth said later that the roll damper—a device designed to overcome rolling motions automatically—failed three times during the 3,443-mile-per-hour, 87,000-foot-high flight.

An alternate system took over and enabled him to complete the flight safely.

SECOND EXAMPLE

Space agency pilot Joseph A. Walker reported similar trouble after a flight in another X-15 last Tuesday.

Rushworth said Monday that the electronic malfunction interfered only slightly with the main purpose of the flight—charting the flow of air friction heat over the X-15's steel alloy skin.

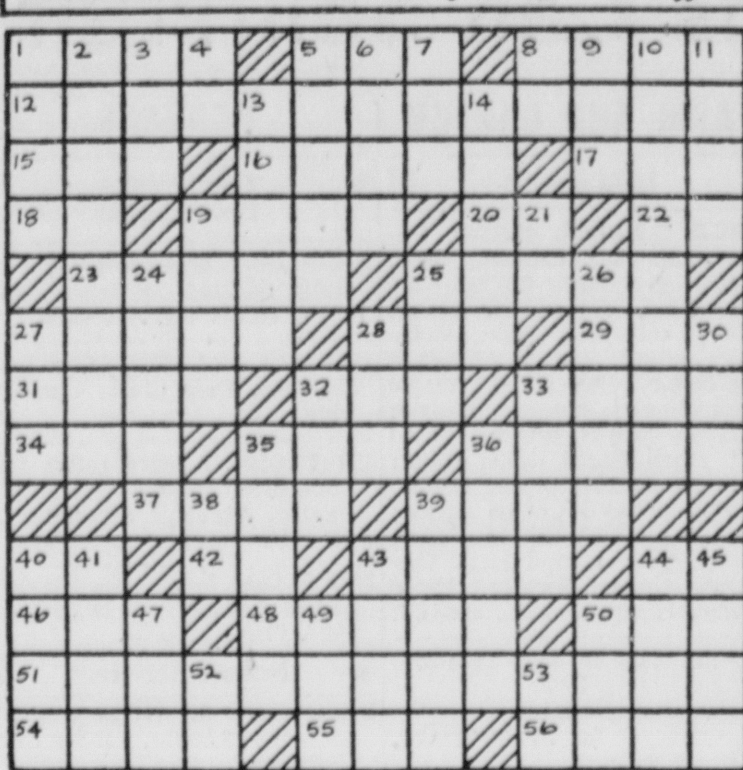

Engineers had estimated that skin temperatures would rise close to 1,200 degrees Fahrenheit, from atmospheric friction like that which returning space ships will encounter. Rushworth said he could not be sure until flight records are checked but guessed the temperatures probably did not rise that high Monday.

Thermometers along the X-15's leading edges previously have recorded heat up to 1,280 degrees.

ASK STEPUP IN TB TESTS IN PA.'S SCHOOLS

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—The State Health Department called Tuesday for a major step-up in Pennsylvania's tuberculosis testing programs for school children. Dr. Harold E. Coder, director of the division of tuberculosis control, told the 11th annual Health Conference that school districts should start administering the tests at least three different times to all public and parochial school children.

The first test should be given a child when he enters the primary grades, Dr. Coder suggested, then again in the fifth or sixth grade and finally during the 10th, 11th or 12th grades.

CHANGES URGED

At present school districts are required only to give pupils a chest x-ray once during their high school years.

In December, 1961, however, State Health Secretary Charles L. Wilbur recommended that school districts adopt the tuberculin test as a substitute for the mandated chest x-ray.

Dr. Coder noted that since 1957, the State Health Department has given about 250,000 tuberculin tests in Pennsylvania—both to school children and adults.

Of those tested, 1.6 per cent of the children under 20 years of age and 25.4 per cent of the teachers and school employees over 20 years of age reacted.

"At least one-fourth of the adult population of Pennsylvania has been infected with tuberculosis at some time during their lifetime," Dr. Coder added, basing his statement on tuberculin surveys taken by the Health Department.

These individuals, he said, have a greater risk of developing active tuberculosis in the future than those who have never been infected with the tuberculosis germ.

No More Prayers At Football Games

ROCKDALE, Tex. (AP)—The ministers of Rockdale have gone on record as being opposed to mass prayers at the beginning of high school football games.

The Rev. Frank Buechley, pastor of the First Christian church and president of the Rockdale Ministerial Association, said Monday the association had voted to discontinue participation in pre-game prayers.

"It wasn't a conducive atmosphere for that type of thing," he said. "There is a time to pray and a time to play."
